Check before you connect

Your new connections aren't always who they say they are, and this can put you and your organisation at risk

Remember the four Rs

Recognise

the profile?

Realise

the potential threat

Think before you link

Connecting with unknown profiles on social media can put you and your organisation at risk

Remember the four Rs

- Recognise — the profile?
- Realise — the potential threat
- Report — to your security manager/adviser
- Remove — them from your network
